

Ramadan

Month of the Quran

Ramadan is the month of the Quran.

Many, many, many years ago Allah sent down the Quran to Prophet Muhammad SWS.

It was brought down by a super important angel called Jibrail AS.

It was first sent down by Allah in the month of Ramadan. This is why Ramadan is the month of the Quran.

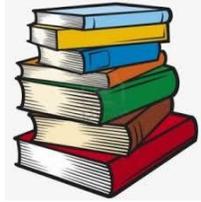

Do you know how long it took for the entire Quran to come down?

It took 23 years.

How old are you? Now imagine how much longer is 23 years.

The messages from Allah came a little at a time.

Do you know that Prophet Muhammad SWS never went to school like you do?

Then how did he read the Quran?

He did not read it. He memorized it as the Angel conveyed it to him.

Did Allah send down the Quran in the form of a book?

No. Prophet Muhammad SWS was given verbal messages from Allah.

His Companions (like Friends who trust you and respect you) wrote the messages down exactly the way Prophet Muhammad SWS repeated it to them.

Why is the Quran the most important book in the world?

Well. There are lots of cool reasons.

1. It is Allah's word and He is speaking directly to us. We cannot see Him but He can see us.

one. One day she saw Tracy's scooter parked by her garage. No one was around. Rita picked up a sharp stone and scratched it all over.

Why did Rita do what she did?

Nobody was watching, so is she safe doing what she did?

Do you think it made her feel good afterwards?

What should she do now?

XX

There was once a little girl who lived with her parents in a modest little home. They did not have much in the house. There was hardly any furniture and very few clothes to wear.

The little girl had a few worn out toys and books.

There was no car, so they used the transit when they had to go somewhere.

They were always ready to help anyone who needed their help. People just loved them.

They had barely enough money to provide for the family. But strangely there was always food on the table every day.

No one ever complained about not having things, and no one was ever frustrated. It was a family that was always happy.

Strangely whenever they needed anything they always got it.

All that was because of 'Barakah' that Allah put in their home.

What is Barakah?

It is something nice that keeps increasing, just magically.

If you are good to someone, miraculously there will be lots of goodness in your life. If you give charity to someone in need, you will get lots more in exchange.

Things do not bring Barakah. Acts of goodness bring Barakah.

Think!

Ramadan is almost coming to a finish.

How many acts of goodness did you do in this month?

How many things did you do that you feel sorry about? What should you do?

What is it that you feel good about?

Do you think you were very patient about having to be home?

Did you get into a fight with your siblings?

Were you always polite with your family members?

How did you help around the house?

EID MUBARAK TO ALL OF YOU.
